

About University of Charleston

The University of Charleston is an independent, co-educational residential university. Our main campus is on the banks of the Kanawha River in Charleston, West Virginia, providing access to all that Charleston has to offer. We have a second location in Beckley, West Virginia, offering an emphasis on healthcare related associate degrees. And our online programs provide opportunities for adult learners and others to pursue and complete their degrees.

About Campus Life

What it's Like on Our Campus

The Office of Student Life is devoted to providing you with the opportunity for engagement, activities, campus involvement, and civic contribution that advances your personal growth. The University has always recognized that a significant portion of your total learning experience is acquired outside the classroom.
