

About Beloit College

Beloit empowers students to discover and develop their strengths and prepares graduates to thrive in an ever-changing world. Students apply what they learn in class through internships, fieldwork, community engagement projects, and study abroad programs. Small class sizes foster personalized attention, and faculty become mentors. A community of 1,275 undergraduates from nearly every state and more than 40 countries, the college is located in a historic residential neighborhood just north of the Wisconsin-Illinois border.
