About Campus Life

What it's Like on Our Campus

MMC enrolls students of all faiths. Classes are taught by professors, not graduate students. The small student-faculty ratio fosters personalized learning, where teaching is the highest priority. Located on the bluffs of the Missouri River, the 80-acre campus has a mix of modern and historic buildings.

Campus Safety

Safety is a key concern of the campus, and precautions are taken at a number of levels to ensure the security of the students, staff and faculty. Security checks are conducted regularly, and risk assessment exercises with representatives from across the campus are held to prepare for a possible emergency.
