

About Albion College

Albion College has been a pioneer in providing career-preparation opportunities within a liberal arts framework, and offers a robust, hands-on education where students are involved in comprehensive academic programs both in and out of the classroom throughout their four years on campus. By combining a liberal arts foundation with experiential learning, Albion students gain the practical knowledge and purposeful direction needed for future success—in graduate or professional school, or in immediate employment following graduation.

About Campus Life

What it's Like on Our Campus

Albion's residential campus provides a wealth of extracurricular opportunities for students. Students express their individuality and develop leadership skills through participation in various clubs, student government, athletics, and arts activities. Increasingly they are engaged in revitalizing our home community as volunteers for schools, social service agencies, and economic development organizations.
