

About Sewanee: The University of the South

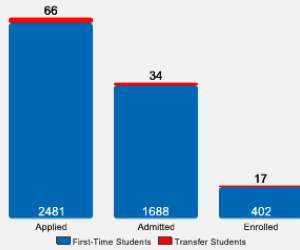

The University of the South is known as Sewanee, the town in Tennessee where the university was founded in 1857. Located on a 13,000-acre mountaintop campus, Sewanee offers a challenging liberal arts curriculum amidst architecture that recalls Oxford and Cambridge. Sewanee's unique traditions, and its ownership by 28 dioceses of the Episcopal Church, represent historic ties to England. Here you will find a strong spirit of community, and an unparalleled intellectual adventure.
