

About New Saint Andrews College

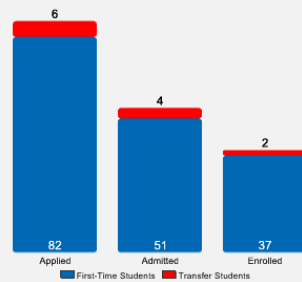

New Saint Andrews is a limited enrollment, non-residential classical Christian college in Moscow, Idaho. We offer a single integrative classical undergraduate curriculum from a Trinitarian perspective with orienting lectures, demanding readings in primary works, and weekly small-group discussions with instructors. We also offer graduate degrees in Classical Christian Studies and in Trinitarian Theology & Culture. The College is set within a vibrant Christian community that encourages high academic standards, personal maturity, and spiritual accountability.

About Campus Life

What it's Like on Our Campus

The community is our campus. Our main facility is an historic building on Moscow's central square. Students live in apartments or board with families. Students study and socialize in Tyndale Library (60,000 volumes), the Commons, and the downtown's coffeehouses. Large events are held in a historic theater.
