

About Beacon College

Beacon College is the first regionally accredited baccalaureate institution devoted to the preparation and post-degree success of students with Learning Disabilities, ADHD, and other learning differences. The College selectively enrolls over 400 undergraduates drawn from 40 states and 10 nations. For collegians who learn differently, Beacon's mission and multi-modal instructional focus have proven consequential. The College's student outcomes are unduplicated in measures of four-year graduation, undergraduate retention, and post-degree employment and advanced study.

About Campus Life

What it's Like on Our Campus

Beacon College is situated in Leesburg, forty-five miles north of Orlando and an hour's drive to both Florida's Atlantic and Gulf Coasts. Beacon's residential campus is friendly, comfortable, and safe, with a decidedly "student-centered" orientation combining the convenience of a historic "downtown" setting with the healthy tranquility of student residences.

Campus Safety

Beacon College has maintained a consistently strong record with respect to campus safety. The campus has 24/7 coverage provided by a cadre of College-employed professional Campus Safety and Security officers. Additionally, electronic surveillance is installed at all student residences and adjacent grounds.
