

About Cornell College

1 Course X 18 Days X 8 Blocks = One Course At A Time. The territory you'll cover is the same as a semester schedule, but the path you travel offers an entirely different journey. Spend 18 days studying one subject. Get to know your professors and classmates. You might travel for an afternoon, a week, or an entire 18-day class. Immerse yourself. Then, take a four-day block break. Repeat. Graduate in 4 years.
