

About Creighton University

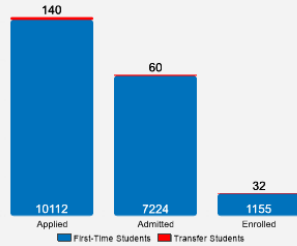

Creighton enrolls 4,000+ undergraduates and 4,000+ graduate/professional students in nine schools and colleges. No other university its size offers such a comprehensive academic community with faculty-mentors and the chance to do undergraduate research. Jesuit, Catholic, it provides more than an education, including growth through service and interprofessional opportunities that bridge health professions programs with law, business and the liberal arts. Creighton has been top-ranked by U.S. News & World Report for 20+ years.
