

About Franklin & Marshall College

Franklin & Marshall College is a place where the liberal arts and sciences are connected to the real world, where innovation meets practicality and where students are engaged in the hard work of having an impact on the world. Students explore the natural, social and cultural worlds through our liberal arts education, and apply that knowledge in an experiential setting. This combination of learning and doing prepares students for graduate school, professional school or a career.

Campus Safety

Over the past several years, substantial initiatives to improve campus safety have been initiated, including additional officers, better trained officers, security cameras, and additional safety lighting. A shuttle bus runs on weekend to transport students from campus to off-campus locations. An emergency text messaging system is now in place.
