

About Johns Hopkins University

Exploration and discovery have formed the core of the undergraduate experience at Johns Hopkins ever since its founding. Students push academic boundaries, with the resources of Baltimore and Washington, DC, at their fingertips. The 5,000 undergraduate students on the Homewood campus form a close-knit campus community. Undergraduates choose from 52 majors in the humanities, social and natural sciences, and engineering, with academic flexibility allowing them to take classes across disciplines and combine interests.

About Campus Life

What it's Like on Our Campus

Student life is centered around our 140-acre campus in the heart of Baltimore, Maryland. Events pack the calendar, with music, theater, guest speakers, art exhibits, comedy, film, dance, and sports regularly offered. Engaged students use the surrounding Baltimore community as an extension of campus for learning and social opportunities.
