

About Juniata College

Founded in 1876, Juniata College is an independent, co-educational national liberal arts college that encourages individuals to think independently, evolve individually and act globally. In a safe, beautiful learning environment amid the central Pennsylvania mountains, Juniatians benefit from an engaged community, rich traditions, committed faculty, flexible programs, and hands-on academic experiences. Of the students who graduated in 2018, 94 percent did so in four years or less.

About Campus Life

What it's Like on Our Campus

"Juniata is truly a student-centered college. There is a remarkable cohesiveness in this commitment: faculty, students, trustees, staff and alumni, each from their own vantage point, describe a community in which the growth of the student is central." Quote, Middle States Commission, nationwide accreditation agency for higher education
