

About Kalamazoo College

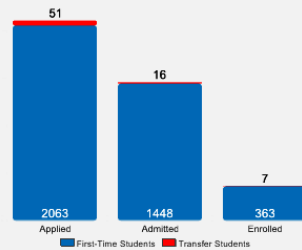

Kalamazoo College is an international fellowship in learning. Students combine rigorous academics in the liberal arts, career internships, study abroad, service-learning, and a senior individualized project into a personal undergraduate experience that prepares them to become responsible and successful citizens who are at home in a diverse and changing world. Outcomes measures show that Kalamazoo College has few peers in developing critical thinking, reasoning, problem solving, and writing.

About Campus Life

What it's Like on Our Campus

Kalamazoo students enjoy the vibrant campus life of a tightly knit community, sharing the experiences of living, learning, and working together and with faculty. Because living in the residence halls is a critical element of collegiate success, students reside in the residential system through winter quarter of their junior year.
