

About Loyola University New Orleans

Loyola's unique combination of quality faculty and academic programs; an ideal size that fosters a positive learning environment and individual attention; and the centuries-old Jesuit tradition of educating the whole person distinguishes us from other institutions. Loyola provides big-school experiences with small-school relationships. Students are British Marshall, Fulbright, Goldwater, Mellon, Mitchell, and Rhodes scholarship recipients. Loyola consistently ranks among the top regional universities in the South.

About Campus Life

What it's Like on Our Campus

Based on shared self-governance, student leaders play an integral decision making role in the Loyola community. Students learn critical thinking and effective communication skills while being supported by a staff of professionals. Organizations work collaboratively to sponsor campus events while learning leadership skills and value-based decision making.
