

About Manchester College

Manchester College is an institution where students can find their place. Students learn side-by-side with faculty, both in and out of the classroom. Students engage in academics that matter, emphasizing the skills they need for first jobs or graduate school and the values that will shape their contributions in the world. Students make friends for life. And students succeed!

What it's Like on Our Campus

Manchester College is a classic small college in the appealing small Hoosier town of North Manchester. Our 125-acre campus is shaded with large oak trees that bring a festival of color each fall. Classrooms, lecture halls, residence halls, and athletic facilities are all within an easy five-minute walk.
