

About Meredith College

Chartered in 1891, Meredith College opened with just over 200 women. Today, our student body has grown to nearly 2,000, and includes men at the graduate level. Meredith challenges students to explore their interests, expand their skills, and build on their strengths. Our graduates go on to use their intellect and abilities to make a positive impact on the world. At 128 years and counting, Meredith College is still going strong.

About Campus Life

What It's Like on Our Campus

Meredith's 225-acre campus boasts a vibrant capital city location. Diverse co-curricular opportunities include 100 organizations, nearly 600 leadership positions, eight athletic teams, volunteer and performing arts opportunities, and rich college traditions. An annual daylong showcase of student research exemplifies Meredith's emphasis on academic rigor and student achievement.

Campus Safety

Meredith strives to ensure a safe campus. Trained campus police provide 24-hour patrol service. Through residence hall programming, drills and emergency information, students learn that safety is a shared responsibility. Broadcast voicemail, a hotline, and electronic alerts allow for campus-wide communication of emergency information.
