

About Millikin University

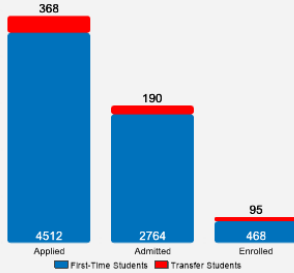

The will to perform, the confidence to succeed. Millikin University's unique approach to higher education, "performance learning," builds the confidence students need to succeed after graduation. To be truly prepared for today's global economy, Millikin students win opportunities to perform their learning by working with real companies, on real projects. The result: Millikin grads are better prepared than others. Millikin is a private, primarily undergraduate institution of 2,000 students with over 70 programs.
