

About Morningside College

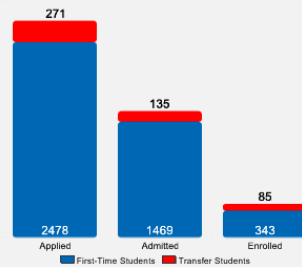

Founded in 1894, Morningside College is a private, four-year, co-educational institution affiliated with the United Methodist Church. The mission of the college is to cultivate a passion for life-long learning and a dedication to ethical leadership and civic responsibility. The Morningside experience is based in the liberal arts tradition and prepares students for both personal and professional success through experiential learning that is facilitated by a dedicated faculty and small class sizes.

About Campus Life

What it's Like on Our Campus

Morningside College is a community that focuses on education in action. Students find it easy to get involved, help others, and practice ethical leadership. For example, Residence Life provides literally hundreds of activities each year, many organized and run by the students themselves.
