About Campus Life

What it's Like on Our Campus

Augustana's beautiful 115-acre campus extends into the culturally diverse Quad Cities. On campus, the college's residential life program and award-winning office of student activities offer many leadership and social opportunities, while more than 150 extra-curricular clubs and organizations engage students throughout the year.

Campus Safety

Campus Security provides 24-hour patrols and works with local police and fire departments to ensure prompt response to any campus emergency. Residence halls are accessible only by keypad. A free shuttle provides transportation around and near campus. An emergency alert system utilizes sirens, email, and text messaging services.
