

About Sweet Briar College

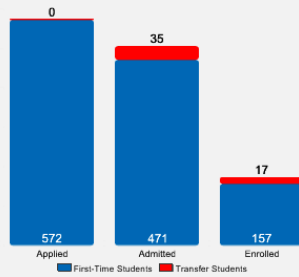

Committed to the education of women since its founding in 1901, Sweet Briar College is generally considered one of the leading national liberal arts and sciences colleges in the country. Faculty and staff members take an individual interest in each young woman's intellectual development and personal growth. The "Sweet Briar Promise" guarantees for each student the opportunity to include in her college education experiences that will best prepare her for a lifetime of success.

About Campus Life

What it's Like on Our Campus

Sweet Briar feels like the "quintessential" college campus - a campus separated from the surrounding world and composed of red brick buildings, many with stone columns. This environment allows our students to focus on why they're here and to enjoy living and learning in a vibrant, interesting, supportive, educational community.

Campus Safety

The College maintains 24-hour police protection, 365 days/year with officers who patrol on foot and in marked police vehicles. Anyone entering campus between 6:00pm and 6:00am is required to register at the checkpoint. An escort service is available, and there are emergency phones in strategic locations.
