

About Trinity College

Trinity College, one of two national, residential, liberal arts college located in a capital city, offers unique opportunities for combining classroom instruction with experiential learning and student-Faculty research. Whether studying engineering, human rights, neuroscience or one of the 38 majors that integrate hands-on research, students expand their education through intellectual conversations and campus activities, engage with the city through internships and community service, and explore the wider world through our nine Global Sites.

What it's Like on Our Campus

Our students, faculty, and staff greet one another on the Long Walk, explore ideas over coffee in the library, or play Frisbee on the quad. A strong "Bantam" campus spirit is balanced with a commitment to intellectual debate, community service, student activities, the performance arts, and athletics.

Campus Safety

Trinity's security team communicates incidents and safety reports to the campus and maintains strong working relationships with the Hartford Police. Trinity has an emergency notification system for use in an emergency. Our trained officers oversee a shuttle system, video surveillance in selected areas, and an electronic key system.
