About Campus Life

What it's Like on Our Campus

Located two miles from downtown Dayton, our 388-acre campus is bordered by a quiet, suburban neighborhood — the ideal surrounding for a residential university. Approximately 85 percent of our students live on campus and in the student neighborhood — a one-of-a-kind community of students living side by side in porch-clad houses.

Campus Safety

We pride ourselves on the fact that our University provides a safe, welcoming environment. Full-time and part-time sworn officers secure our campus 24 hours a day, everyday — and can respond to your needs within minutes. Campus guides are also available to accompany you during the evening and early morning hours.
