

About University of the Pacific

The hallmark of a Pacific education is total commitment to students. Pacific takes pride in offering small class sizes, an engaged faculty, and real-life research and experiential opportunities to undergraduates who are ready to enter the workforce upon graduation. The University also offers quality graduate and professional degrees and certificates for those furthering their education.

About Campus Life

What it's Like on Our Campus

Voted in the national top 20 of campuses with the most things to do by Princeton Review, Pacific provides extensive opportunities for students to experience the campus and surrounding community. Most students belong to one or more of the 100+ clubs and organizations. 12% also join a fraternity or sorority.
