

About William Jewell College

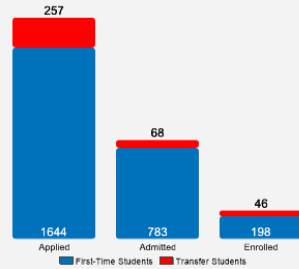

William Jewell College guides students to think critically, engage in the world and prepare for meaningful lives. The four-year private college in Liberty, Mo., offers personalized programs such as the Oxbridge Honors Program, which combines British tutorial methods of instruction with a year at Oxford University. Leadership, entrepreneurship and innovation are emphasized through a nonprofit leadership major, fellowship program and innovation lab. The college's proximity to Kansas City provides cultural, internship and career options.
